

Exploring London's Waterways Sunday, 4 March 2012

Professional dowser Vicky Sweetlove is a registered BSD tutor, an accredited consultant with the Feng Shui Society and a member of their Executive Committee. She is on the BSD Professional Register of Dowsing Practitioners for Water, Geopathic Stress, Health and Archaeology. Vicky also regularly runs various BSD-approved courses.

In 2009, Vicky took part in a dowsing artwork project in conjunction with artist Amy Sharrocks. The artwork took in map dowsing and then walking six of the "old rivers" of London, namely the Effra, Walbrook, Westbourne, Tyburn, Fleet and the Neckinger.

BSD members and non-members alike are welcome on this practical dowsing field trip, where you will track the path of the River Tyburn across London under Vicky's guidance. The day will finish on a historical note with some archaeological dowsing at Westminster.

Details

Timings/Location 10.30am-4.30pm. Meet at Belsize Park tube entrance (Northern line) at 10.30am.

Note the Northern line forks at Camden Town and Belsize Park is on the Edgware branch. At the time of publication, part closure is scheduled for the High Barnet branch of the Northern line, which will not affect Belsize Park directly.
